WHAT YOUR DELEGATE/S NEED TO KNOW

The following is an extract from the Regional Assembly Delegates Manual designed to give you an overview of your rights as a Tennis Queensland affiliate. The full document can be found online at: tennis.com.au/gld/about/governance-policies

The control of Tennis Queensland is entirely in the hands of the Affiliated Bodies through the election of their delegates to successive levels of governance (Regional Assemblies, Company Members and Tennis Queensland Board of Directors).

WHAT IS A REGIONAL ASSEMBLY?

Regional Assemblies are the link between Tennis Queensland and its Affiliated Bodies and are a forum for the clubs and associations in each region to organise tennis at a regional level. Responsibility for each region is undertaken by a Regional Assembly made up of Delegates elected or appointed by the Affiliated Bodies in the region.

WHAT DOES A REGIONAL ASSEMBLY DO?

The prime responsibility of every Regional Assembly is to coordinate everything that happens in the region (e.g. development programs, assistance of the Community Tennis Officer and the dates for local tournament circuits).

Regional Assemblies and Regional Members, in particular, have a key role in the communication network. Tennis Queensland staff and Directors are kept informed about regional issues and local news & events by these delegates, whilst new information about Tennis programs or decisions made by the Board and Company Members is communicated back and explained to clubs & associations.

HOW ARE REGIONAL ASSEMBLY DELEGATES ELECTED?

Each body affiliated with Tennis Queensland in an affiliation year is entitled to elect or appoint a Delegate from their organisation to represent them on the Regional Assembly. Due to recent constitutional changes in 2016, all clubs will be allowed only 1 delegate each for the Regional Assembly.

REGIONAL ASSEMBLY VOTING RIGHTS (AFFILIATES)

Also new to 2017 following additional constitutional changes, voting rights for each club at their Regional Assembly meetings are now based on your affiliation size and number of courts.

REGIONAL ASSEMBLY VOTING ALLOCATION:

Association/ affiliate with no courts: 1 vote Small affiliation (1-4 courts): 2 votes Medium affiliation (5-9 courts): 3 votes Large affiliation (10+ courts): 4 votes

To find out more about the Regional Assembly, please refer to the Regional Assembly Delegates Manual found online at: tennis.com.au/gld/about/governance-policies
