ANZ Junior Pennant

The largest inter-club junior tennis competition in the ACT and region

- In the event of a washout or forfeit, the home team is responsible for the lodgement of a result. The forfeiting team receives no points and the winning team receives 6 points plus all of the rubbers. Tennis attire as described in the TA Dress Code must be worn for all matches
- All players must be financial club members of a Tennis ACT affiliated club. Points will be deducted from teams who use non club members unless approved by Tennis ACT.
- At the end of all rounds, the total points for each team are divided by the number of matches played. The teams with the highest average will play in the semi finals or finals where there is no semi finals scheduled. Semi finalists and finalists will be notified by Tennis ACT.
