

To change your default view to the AYC page

To see the AYC competition for the first time and make this your default page, go to:
comps.tennis.com.au

From here you can perform a search for ayc in the search box on the top right hand side

Alternatively, choose the word change (circled in red below) and enter ayc for the name in the field circled in green shown below. Click on search and as shown below AYC Tennis should be displayed. Choose Make this my default association all circled in purple.

This will send you to the AYC competition every time you visit the site now.

The screenshot shows the Tennis Australia website header with a "(Change)" link circled in red. The navigation menu includes "Club, Assoc.", "Player", and "Advanced search". The "Advanced Search" section is active, showing the "PLAYER" tab selected. The search form includes a "State" dropdown set to "Tasmania" (circled in green), a "Name" field containing "ayc" (circled in green), and search type options: "Name contains search string" (selected), "Name starts with search string", and "Name ends with search string". A "Search" button is circled in purple. Below the search form, a table displays the search results for "AYC Tennis" in "TAS", with a "Make this my default Association" link circled in purple. The "Recent Organisation Searches" section shows "AYC Tennis" as a recent search. The right sidebar contains "Latest Tennis Australia News" and "Latest Competitions News".
