News from our Coach

Junior and Coaching News

Firstly a big congratulations to our Division 5 team of Alex Lloyd, Matthew Brown and Jasper Paten for their runners up result in the NDTA Junior fixtures winter season. They dominated the number one team in the semi finals, by playing consistent and smart tennis. Such a great effort, well done boys!!

Also well done to all our fixture players who participated, it's been great to witness your confidence and skill level improve after full season of competition. Hope to see you all back competing again in 2017.

The junior summer fixtures will begin this weekend, good luck and have fun and stay cool. Understandable with the hot weather on its way, the majority of our regular fixture players have opted to take a break from tennis competition this season.

Our Ladies Coach and Match Play session has recently been moved to Thursday evenings, starting at 6.15pm to 7.30pm. Lots of fun challenging drills that will improve your tennis skills. Perfect conditions for tennis, all standards welcome. $12 per session.

Up Coming Events

Our Junior Christmas Party, date to be confirmed.

School holiday 3 day tennis camp, dates Monday 12th, Tuesday 13th and Wednesday 14th of December.
Suitable for beginner to advanced players.

Everyone welcome, this is a great opportunity to invite your friends along that are new to tennis.

Hinterland Open

The Hinterland Open is done until next year with Phil and Rajendra walking away with the honours.

What an awesome tournament it has been, truly Open right to the end and with Greg's departure before the finals it opened up even wider, enjoy the video at the link below.

Last Minute Charge Sees Two "Outsiders" Through to the Final

Darryl and Nathan paired up for the final round of the now legendary Hinterland Open.

Both players lingering on the 5 points mark hoping on a wing and a prayer to make the finals - well when they found themselves in a tie break playoff to make the finals, you could clearly hear the cacophony of angles as they held the momentum and beat Phil and Nick in the final to both end on 10 points. The divine ace was yet to be played as Greg our tournament leader had to make a withdrawal from the final, leaving place for both players in this years winter Hinterland Open!

Ahaaaaaaaaaa!

The other two players through are Phil on 12.5 points our most consistent finalist this year and Rajendra who worked a numbers game, the more you play the more points you get!

To Tim, Nick, Brent, Mark, Tony and Trevor who all ended on 7.5 points making it the closest Open on record, the Summer Open beckons.
