Court Cleaning

During late April/early May we will be cleaning all 4 courts. This will involve one court at a time being unavailable for use for one day.

Details will be made available and posted on our notice board once we have consulted with the coaching team, other users, and the cleaning contractor.

Cleaning the courts is an intrusive but absolutely essential task that we have to arrange every two years or so, depending on the onset of mould and mildew. Too much can lead to slippery conditions.

Imbil Tennis Club

Cooroy and Imbil Tennis Clubs have a close association, the Imbil Tennis Club President, Gaylene Smith, is also a member of Cooroy Club.

Cooroy Club Coach has been running a coaching/hitting and Cardio Session at Imbil over 2 hours on a Saturday afternoon, everyone welcome, restarts on the 26 April 3.30pm.

Imbil are very grateful to Rob for attending on Saturdays afternoons for coaching sessions, followed by Cardio tennis and looking forward to the next session.

Cooroy players are welcome to join in.

Gaylene can be contacted on 0413 390 667.

This terms coaching has been very busy with full classes in lots of sessions. We have the Term break coming up with our last coaching day being the 3 April and recommencing on Tuesday 22 April.

Membership has been moving along quite well in the junior section.
Coaches have been encouraging juniors to join (only $10)
by offering discounted coaching for junior members.

Junior MLC Hotshots members received a backpack along with their free T Shirt and a Tennis Whiteboard this term.

NDTA Fixtures saw Cooroy field 10 teams in six divisions, well done to the semi-finalists who were Cyle, Alex and James in Division 3a, Campbell and Tyson in Division 5b and Ezekial and Paige in Division 8.
Going on to the Grand Final and Winning It were Campbell and Tyson – Congratulations!!

We are looking for teams for the Junior Winter season which starts in Early May and ask everyone to let their coaches know if they would like to continue playing or start
