Vale Alex Lowe - Life Member

It is with great sadness that I advise club members that Alex Lowe, a Life Member of the Club, has passed away at age 84.

Alex joined the Club in the early 1950's and was a member of our Club for over 60 years. Alex was club president in, I think, 1988, and it was about then he was made a life member. He was a tireless worker, along with his club mates, doing repairs and maintenance work around the courts, and playing in the organised inter-club fixtures.

Alex said to me that in recent years the concrete surfaces at the club were a little too much for him so instead he played social tennis at local private synthetic courts. I played for a number of years with Alex at these private courts, and frequently drew on his knowledge of our club and how best to look after it.

Alex was also a stalwart of the Cooroy Golf Club and I sometimes saw him there on the course. He worked tirelessly over the years as a volunteer on the mowers and other machines. It was a life style he loved.

Alex's life was celebrated at a funeral service in Tewantin on 3 March 2016

RIP Alex.
