Community Sport Infrastructure Grant Program

In late August, Michael Blomer (Tennis Queensland) sent us information about the federal government's SportAus Community Sport Infrastructure Grants Program and suggested we apply for funding for a package of infrastructure improvements including:

*Upgrading of court lighting from metal halide globes to LED,
which would improve court light levels.*

Construction of an amenities extension, which would include showers, change rooms, new toilets and a parents room.

Resurfacing of courts 3 and 4.

The application was submitted on 14 September 2018 and the successful applicants will be notified from 1 November 2018 onwards.

Many thanks to Tennis Queensland, Noosa Council, Pomona Tennis Club, Sunshine Ladies Midweek Tennis Association, Tuesday Night Tennis Group, Di Peterson (Cooroy coach), and Rob Schmidt (SC hinterland coach) for their thoughtful Statements and Letters of Support.

Winter Fixtures

Congratulations to Jasper Paten and Alex Lloyd for winning their Division 2 grand final against the Palmwood Tigers in tough windy conditions, the boys held their nerve and fought for every point against strong opponents. Score 28/23.

Well done and keep up the great results in Division 1.

Semi Finals

Zac Price and Louis Iriondo played impressive tennis in their semi final match, unfortunately losing by only 2 games. Both boys played great throughout the season, with Zac's determination and rallying skills is yet to lose a singles match all season.
