2. Important information about the Ballot

How does the Ballot process work?

- (a) Every affiliate of each Member Association is sent an online link for their members to enter the ballot by their Member Association. There will be a Ballot for both Roland Garros and Wimbledon tickets. Ballot registrations will be accessible from Monday 11th April, with the Roland Garros Ballot closing on Wednesday 20th April at 11:59pm (AEDST), and the Wimbledon Ballot closing on Wednesday 4th May at 11:59pm (AEDST).
- (b) All authentic ballot applications will be randomised and tickets will be allocated in order of available preference.
- (c) All successful applicants will be sent an email detailing the ticket offer including session, date, time and court information. Depending on the date of the ballot draw, Tennis Australia may be able to share the allocation of the seats you have been allocated. There is no option to select seats as the allocation we receive as a Federation is fixed. The email will also detail method of payment. This will include a $20 transaction fee, applicable per transaction (not per ticket).
- (d) For Wimbledon tickets, successful applicants may be required to sign and return an individual declaration form when receiving their tickets. This document is a legal disclaimer confirming tickets obtained in the ballot will not be re-sold or transferred by the ballot applicants. This has previously been a requirement of The All England Club. Once this information is confirmed by The All England Club, this will be passed onto successful ballot applicants..
- (e) If you accept your ticket allocation, you will be charged the amount detailed in their email of offer. The All England Club are currently reviewing how tickets from the ballot will be distributed. Once this is confirmed, this will be communicated to successful ballot applicants. If available, tickets for Wimbledon may also be transferred via an online portal if the option is available.
- (f) Roland Garros tickets will be sent in e-ticket format to the name and email address provided in the acceptance email.

How many tickets can I apply for?

- (a) For the Roland Garros ballot there is a maximum of two tickets per day and applications are limited to one per family. Please note that if successful you must supply the names of all attending patrons, which will be forwarded to the French Tennis Association. Photo ID will be checked on entry to the event.
- (b) For the Wimbledon ballot there is a maximum of two tickets and applications are limited to one per family.
- (c) There is a limit of 10 sessions each applicant can apply for; applicants should only nominate sessions they would like to attend. Please do not apply for sessions you do not wish to attend.

What tickets will be made available and at what cost?

- a) Tennis Australia receives an allocation to Philippe Chatrier Court (Centre Court) and Suzanne Lenglen Court (Court 1) for the Roland Garros and Centre Court, Court 1 and Court 2 for Wimbledon. We aren't aware of what specific seating allocation we are given until later in the year, however, the sessions and prices will be displayed within the registration process.

Can I apply for all courts?

- a) Yes. You can apply for tickets to all courts provided to Tennis Australia as part of the agreed allocation. Tennis Australia receives an allocation to Philippe Chartier Court (Centre Court) and Suzanne Lenglen Court (Court 1) for the Roland Garros and Centre Court, Court 1 and Court 2 for Wimbledon. Understandably, some courts will be more popular than others and the allocation Tennis Australia receives is very limited.

Will I be allocated tickets for all sessions I have applied for?

- a) No, if you are successful in the Ballot you will only be allocated a maximum of 2 tickets to one session.

How do I receive my tickets if I am successful?

- a) Tickets to the Roland Garros are distributed as e-tickets and will be emailed to all successful applicants in late April/early May. Please note, as part of the allocation of Roland Garros tickets it is a requirement that the names of all successful ticket holders are supplied to the French Tennis Association. Photo ID will be checked on entry to the event.

Can I request to sit with another successful applicant?

Can I give my tickets to a friend or family member?

- a) Yes. The ballot winner will need to assign the ticket recipient name during the payment process. As long as the person assigned to the tickets matches who collect and attends, this is fine. This can be changed until 72 hours before the session.

Can I obtain ground passes to the Roland Garros or Wimbledon?

- a) No. Ground passes are not allocated to Tennis Australia for the Roland Garros or Wimbledon.
