

TENNIS NSW COUNTRY COMPETITIVE PLAY OPTIONS

TENNIS COUNTRY

Tennis NSW Tennis Country Management Committee is a committee developed by the Tennis NSW Board to support the delivery and grow Tennis in Country NSW. Tennis Country, in conjunction with the Regional Matchplay Committees have designed a calendar of events that offer regional players consistent level based competition.

COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIPS

WHAT IS IT?

The NSW Country Championships is a week long junior and open tournament showcasing the best country players from across the state and boasting record prize money.

WHO CAN PLAY?

All regional NSW tennis players can enter the Country Championships.

REGIONAL STATE LEAGUE

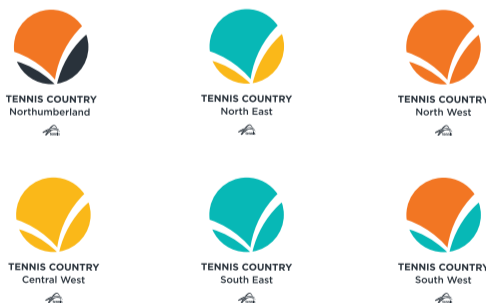

WHAT IS IT?

Tennis Country has reinstated Regional State League for the best players in the region to come together and compete in a team environment once a term.

WHO CAN PLAY?

The top 2 female and male players in the 11 under, 13 under and 15 under are selected through their Regional Matchplay Committees following their participation in the RMS and Tennis Country Series.

REGIONAL MATCHPLAY SERIES

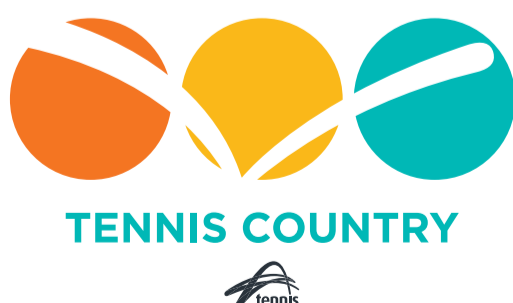

WHAT IS IT?

The Regional Matchplay Series caters for players of all levels and abilities locally within their region and allows players to compete against other players of a similar standard.

WHO CAN PLAY?

The Regional Matchplay Series is open to every regional player of all abilities.

TENNIS COUNTRY SERIES

WHAT IS IT?

The Tennis Country Series has been designed to provide our regions with competitive playing opportunities for Open level players. Events are open for both men and women to compete against similar rated players, in addition to a female only event.

WHO CAN PLAY?*

The Tennis Country Series offers level based play for players with a rating above 5.00 for women and 6.00 for men, over the age of 14 years old.
