

2016 QUEENSLAND SCHOOL SPORT TEAM TENNIS COMPETITION

*Represent your school in a fun teams event
Test your skills against teams from across your region*

Queensland School Sport Team Tennis Competition

The Queensland School Sport Team Tennis Competition is open to all secondary schools in Queensland and provides a pathway to the State Final in Rockhampton and the national final for the winner. Each school has the opportunity to nominate teams at regional ties throughout Queensland.

Teams

Each team must consist of four to five players. There are separate competitions for boys and girls. Thus teams can only be made up by solely boys or girls.

Cost

Teams must pay a fee of $60 (incl. GST) to participate in the Regional ties. Payments must be received via direct deposit prior to the competition. No additional cost will be incurred for participation at the State Final.

About

All matches are played using a timed FAST4 format. Each team is guaranteed to play at least three matches on the day. Teams play four singles and two doubles rubbers where possible.

All teams must play in school uniforms, with hats being compulsory for participation.

Software

All ties will be run using the new Tennis competition software. Players will be able to access their results online at www.leagues.tennis.com.au

Format

All matches are played using FAST4 format. Each team is guaranteed to play at least three matches on the day. Teams play four singles and two doubles rubbers where possible. Each rubber will be played as a FAST4 set:

- first to 4 games
- tie-breaker at 3 games all
- no ad-scoring
- play lets

For more information on rules and player eligibility please refer to the rules of the competition.

State Final

The winning boys and girls team at each regional final of the event will be invited to compete at the State Final.

The State Final will be from 15-16 September 2017 at the Rockhampton Regional Tennis Centre. Players must be available for all days of competition, however a reserve may be called in the case of injury/withdrawal if needed.
