

New tennis coaching business at Glenorchy City Tennis Club

It's an exciting time at the Glenorchy City Tennis Club, as preparations are underway to welcome the arrival of a dynamic duo who are set to deliver some new and innovative coaching services. David Dickson and Katherine Kelly are gearing up to establish their business Dickson Tennis at the club, with plans to create programs focused on tennis, fitness and wellness.

Originally from NSW, David and Katherine have extensive experience in delivering a range of fun and engaging tennis programs for all ages and stages. Having worked with many individuals and teams across Australia, Singapore and the USA, they have a combined wealth of experience and are excited at the prospects of sharing their tennis and wellness vision within Tasmania.

Some of the opportunities provided by Dickson Tennis will include:

- Private and Group lessons for juniors and adults
- Tennis Strength & Conditioning / TSF Tennis Specific Fitness
- Back2Tennis refresher programs
- Tennis Xpress for parents and new adult players
- Skill Builder Multi-Sport – fundamental motor skill development for 3-6 years
- ANZ Hot Shots and Leagues
- Developmental and High performance sessions and squads
- 35+ programs and events
- Competitions and Fast 4 Leagues
- Sporting Schools programs
- Inclusive and special needs tennis
- Wellness Programs – yoga & Pilates.
