

TENNIS WASHED OUT AGAIN

Senior competition of Tennis Geelong was again washed out on Saturday with all matches cancelled. The Junior competition, however, managed to complete matches in the morning before the rain came.

It was disappointing for all sections that matches had to be cancelled, more so for Section 1 where the “top of the table” clash between Newcomb and Centre Court Blue scheduled to be played indoor at Centre Court had to be cancelled as the Association had declared all matches cancelled for the day.

The match of the day next week will see St Luke’s Highton Uniting currently 5th at home to Grovedale 4th and with a full line-up should win to jump into the Four.

In other matches in Section 1 Ocean Grove will be at home to Centre Court Blue, top side Newcomb hosts Wandana Heights and Centre Court Red play St Mary’s at the Indoor.

SHOCK LOSS IN VET’S TENNIS

Top side, Nixon, suffered a shock loss in Centre Court Veterans’ Tennis Competition last Thursday night against Racquetworks, going down by 3 games.

The highlight of the match was the form of Senior Veterans former Australian Test Cricketer, Ian Redpath and Bob Furphy’s whitewash of Peter Cullen (Section 1 player Tennis Geelong) and Peter Kos, taking the last set of the match for Racquetworks 6/0 to snatch victory over Nixon 3 sets 27 games to 3 sets 24 games.

Other players for Nixon were David Kos and Stuart Nixon while Peter Kokalis and John Chomley played their part for Racquetworks.

Ladder with 4 rounds to go before finals – Nixon, Rebounders, Larrikins, Ragers, Racquetworks, Juggernauts, N.L.C., Reeboks and Kestrels.
