

Grand Final day arrives!

We reach the final day of the 2018 Tennis Victoria CountryWeek. It's been a fabulous week of tennis and social activities and now we look forward to seeing who goes home with the titles. The Swan Hill Lawn Tennis and Croquet Club has done a magnificent job in hosting the 2018 event. The 200 teams equating to more than 1100 players have headlined stories in the local paper, booked out local accommodation services and spent time at the many establishments. A huge congratulations to every participant who competed this year and all the best to those playing in finals today. Already looking forward to 2019.

Creativity hits another level

There have been many head-turning team names and uniforms. Well done to the to the Nar Nar Goon Bag team on this original piece.

Team mascots survive scare

The Wodonga Wombat (Earl) and the Albury Croc (Albie) eventually found their way to Swan Hill after being left behind in their respective homes. Close town proximity allowed for the mascots to be rescued so they could be near their teams. The animals are believed to be resting comfortably and remain in good spirits.

Weather forecast:

Partly cloudy. Low 13 High 30

Nets for sale

Swan Hill Lawn Tennis and Croquet Club is selling the as new nets from the Kiosk for $135. Don't miss out on this fantastic offer.

New balls ... sort of

If you want to take home some balls from Country Week we're selling boxes from the Tournament Box for $30. There's approximately 70 balls in each box so make sure you grab some to take home.

FightMND visors for SALE $20

Help Smash MND by purchasing a visor for $20 at the bar. Money raised goes towards research to find a treatment and cure for MND.

Family fun at Country Week

The Littlejohn family from Leongatha haven't just got one or two family members playing but all five have made the trip to Swan Hill for their first Country Week. Picutred (L-

R): Zara, Warren, Philipa, Renae and Will. Well done on getting everyone involved and we hope to see you again in Shepparton in 2019!
