

Country Week

Daily News - Wednesday 14 February

Hosted by Swan Hill Lawn Tennis and Croquet Club

80s night—Murray Downs

Join the Tennis Victoria Country Week Facebook group to stay in touch.

Thanks to all of you who have joined the group.

We're at the business end of the week. We've got two more rounds to be played today before semi finals take over the courts this afternoon.

Good luck to you all, and to those of you that might be finishing their 2018 Tennis Victoria Country Week, thanks for joining us here in Swan Hill and we hope to see you in Shepparton next year!

New balls... sort of.

If you want to take home some balls for Country Week we're selling boxes from the Tournament box for $30. There are approximately 70 balls in each box so make sure you grab some to take home.

Nets

Swan Hill Lawn Tennis and Croquet Club is selling the as new nets from the Kiosk for $135.

Sunbury Ladybirds

Thanks to Brenda Bishop—newly appointed Country Week Legend for sharing her 'Country Week Bible' with us. Brenda has recorded every match her team has played in since 1992 including the names of her team players, opposition players, scores, entry forms and local tourist information. It's amazing!

Skin and Cancer Foundation

Thank you to Leanne from the Skin and Cancer Foundation for coming to Swan Hill to help educate us all on caring for our biggest organ—our skin.

Congratulations to Peter Morrison who won the skin care raffle as well.

Ouch, that hurt!

For sore and aching muscles or just a tune up to some weary legs, pay a visit to Gene and Brett at their massage station near temp court 56. $20 for 15mins.

Weather forecast:

Sunny. Low of 14, high of Love was in the air yesterday with Valentines Day. One very lucky in love CW player was the recently married Courtney Walsh. While we assumed the beautiful flowers and chocolates delivered to the Tournament Box for him were from his wife, it turns out they were from a departed team mate wanting to send his love.

Pat Flynn

Another of our recently announced Country Week Legends was Pat Flynn from Wangaratta. Pat also brought some of his historical records in. Below is a newspaper clipping from The Sun on Wednesday 12 February 1964. Pat (top left) and some other players from Country Victoria were participating at the Country Week event at Kooyong that day. Looks like the weather was very different that day to the beautiful sunshine we've had this week.
