

Future Leaders Frequently Asked Questions

How many days is camp?

This year's camp is 2 nights and 3 days, 9-11 July 2019 in Kyneton, Victoria.

What is the ratio of males to females?

In most recent years, the camp ratio has been 2 males to 1 female.

What do I need to bring?

A list of items to bring for the camp will be sent to all Future Leaders in June. At this stage, items you can plan to bring are; sports attire, runners, warm clothes, beanie, toiletries, sleeping bag, pillow, shower towel and medication.

Can I do my project in a pair or group?

Yes, participants are able to complete their project in pairs or groups. This can be with other participants from their club and/or with participants from clubs in your local area.

What are the sleeping arrangements?

Participants will be put into rooms with participants of the same gender. Room allocations will be given to Future Leaders once we arrive at camp. There will also be a 50/50 split of male and female staff from Tennis Victoria at camp.

What education sessions are available?

There are three education sessions being delivered in 2019 and all participants will partake in all three; Coaching (Intro to ANZ Tennis Hot Shots), Social Media & Fundraising.

Do I need my tennis racquet?

No, you will not need your racquet. You will be provided with any equipment that you may need throughout the camp.

Will there be other participants from my area?

Participants will come from all across Victoria. If you would like to know who else is a part of the 2019 camp, feel free to contact your Participation Leader.

Do I need to have my 40 hour project planned before camp?

Yes, you will need to meet with your club contact and make contact with your Participation Leader before submitting the project plan. Project plans are due on Friday 28th of June, which is before camp starts. This is to ensure that Future Leaders can get started on their project at camp.

Is there support post camp for the delivery of my 40 hour project?

Yes, there will be on-going support from your Participation Leader who will be more than happy to work with you and your club to ensure the project is completed.

Can I change my 40 hour project on or post camp?

Ideally, we would like you to stick with your planned project, however if circumstances change you are more than welcome to change your project once consulting the club and Participation Leader.

When will graduation be?

Graduation details will be available in late 2019 and communicated to all Future Leaders.

Can I have more than one project for my 40 hours?

Yes, you can have multiple projects that make up your 40 hours. We do prefer participants to have one main project, and smaller jobs/tasks to complete the rest of your hours.

Is there a camp schedule?

An up to date schedule will be sent to participants, along with a packing list, in June.

Who will be the emergency contact for camp?

The emergency contact for camp is Peter Bertoncini – 0468 534 105
