

THE DAILY SERVE

#TVCountryWeek

WELCOME TO DAY 1

And welcome to a new decade. We are back here in Wodonga and Albury for the first time since 2016.

What a great week we have coming up. We have 217 teams entered this year with over 1250 players competing – amazing figures which are both record numbers for Country Week.

We aim to get through as much play as possible, so please be patient as we determine whether it is safe to have players on court in the case of rain.

WHAT'S ON TODAY?

EJ Whitten Foundation – "Time to Test"

The Foundation was established in memory of EJ Whitten, who died of prostate cancer, a treatable disease.

The Foundation were here today to encourage their men's health program, and provide blood pressure checks with registered nurses.

The team were also on hand to have a conversation about your health.

The program was open to everyone, it was pleasing to see the ladies getting involved too.

Tuesday – Beyond Blue

Beyond Blue assists Australian's in achieving their best possible mental health, whatever their age and wherever they live.

They will be raising awareness on how to seek help for your mental health.

THANK YOU

Welcome Dinner

Thank you to everyone who attended the Welcome Dinner last night at the Wodonga Tennis Centre despite the weather.

It was great to see and catch-up with so many familiar faces.

WEATHER UPDATE

As much as Tennis Victoria would like to, we unfortunately have no control over the weather. We will endeavor to get through as much play, so long as it is safe to do so.

Please be patient and keep an eye out for updates.
