Welcome from Craig Tiley

On behalf of Tennis Australia, I am excited to invite you to register for the sixth annual Australian Grand Slam Coaches' Conference being held at Hisense Arena, Melbourne Park 10-13 January 2013.

We welcome coaches of all levels from across Australia and around the world to register for the conference, visit the Australian Open and see what Melbourne in the summertime has to offer!

The conference program will provide delegates with the latest in training techniques, programs and management tips allowing delegates to explore the theme – 'Developing Expertise' and stay ahead of the game. Sessions will be lead by high profile speakers and consist of on court demonstrations, off court presentations and practical workshops.

The conference will create opportunities for delegates to hear from some of the world's best tennis and coaching experts, explore new concepts and directions, network with their fellow coaches and take practical examples back to their coaching and their businesses.

Look forward to seeing you at the conference.

Sincerely,

Craig Tiley

Australian Open Tournament Director
Director of Tennis, Tennis Australia

Conference program and functions

The event will be held over four days from Thursday 10 January to Sunday 13 January 2013. A networking and cocktail hour will be provided on conclusion of day 1 and a Conference Dinner function will be held at Kooyong Lawn Tennis Club on day 4.

Testimonials

"As it was my first conference, I was a little apprehensive but I enjoyed every aspect. The sessions inside Hisense Arena were excellent. It was so beneficial to visually experience the new concepts, ideas and drills. My programs, pupils and parents will definitely benefit from the knowledge I acquired during the 4 days." Bernadette Cahill – Junior Development Coach, New South Wales.

"I really enjoyed the diversity of the conference, there were many different topics and genres covered. There was a wide range of different aspects of the coaching business discussed and perspectives which was a pleasant reminder that there is always plenty to learn and adapt to improve our own workplace. This was my first conference but after this experience I will be back for many more to come." Luke Dixon – Club Professional Coach, Victoria.

"Total value for money and plus some!" Harry Ebsworth – Club Professional Coach, Tasmania.

"I always look forward to the conference, what I learn, the venue and the people you get to spend time with." David Grainger – Club Professional Coach, South Australia.

"The conference gives me a very good update of what is currently happening in the tennis world and the latest methods and practices of coaching. The speakers pass their valuable experience and knowledge to us. I have never seen such training methods before. Now I've implemented them into my classes and they work – I just love that." Aaron Ho – Junior Development Coach, Queensland.
