

Project Talent

Project Talent is one of Tennis Australia's strategic priorities and as a result comes an increased commitment to supporting Talent Development Coaches.

Here is an opportunity for private coaches to be part of this team developing our future champions.

Talent Development Coaches

Tennis Australia recognises and supports excellent, passionate coaches who specialise in the development of under 12-year-olds. The private coach is a vital element in the athlete development pathway.

Benefits

Exclusive benefits are available to Talent Development Coaches. They include:

- National travel grants for 12s and/or 14s Nationals
- Financial reward for athlete performances
- Subsidised annual workshop and Australian Grand Slam Coaches Conference
- Exclusive section of the online learning platform Bounce
- Access to Talent Development Coach Mentors
- Specialised workshops and ongoing professional development
- Recognition and promotion through various media
- Tennis branded tracksuit, shirt, and cap
- Project Talent programs and initiatives – ie. Talent Development Camps, Super 10s

Criteria

To become a Talent Development Coach you must meet the following:

1. Be a Tennis Australia Coach Member
2. Hold a current TA/NCAS coaching qualification*. Please note – Junior Development qualified coaches must enroll in the Club Professional course within 12 months of gaining TDC status.
3. Have a track record in the successful development of athletes (see performance criteria)

Over time, a Talent Development Coach must be able to provide an environment that:

- plans for the continued progress of athletes in all key developmental areas – technical, tactical, physical, psychological and social;
- fosters athlete learning, performance and independence in an engaging environment;
- educates and communicates with athletes, parents and key stakeholders regarding development;

Mentors

Tennis Australia has appointed four Talent Development Coach Mentors – Ian Barclay, Bill Bowrey, Rob Kilderry and Gary Stickler. These mentors share their wealth of experience; provide support and assist Talent Development Coaches.

How long is the term of recognition?

Successful coaches will be recognised for a period of two years. In order to maintain recognition coaches must fulfill the following obligations:

- Participate in ongoing professional development within Project Talent via attending any combination of two of the following per year (one per year for regional coaches):
 - Talent Development Camp(s)
 - 12s Nationals
 - Team Manager for a season of Super 10s
- Commit to deliver MLC Tennis Hot Shots or a progressive modified environment.
- Sign an agreement outlining obligations

Note- All benefits and obligations to be reviewed every six months
