

Tennis Australia High Performance Coaching Course

Scholarship information

Tennis Australia strives to support its coach members to continually improve their coaching knowledge and skills by providing opportunities to undertake further training and education. Tennis Australia is offering scholarships to two coaches accepted into the 2014-16 High Performance coaching course (HPCC). One scholarship will be awarded to a female coach and the other to a Tennis Australia Talent Development coach.

Scholarship benefits

- Contribution of $2,000 towards the course fee.
- Opportunity to spend time in the National Training Centre (NTC) or National Academy (NA) in your state observing and interacting with coaches and athletes. This time will be mutually agreed between the coach and the Course Coordinator, Belinda Colaneri.
- Access to the 2015 Australian Open.

Selection criteria

Scholarship holders will be selected based on their eligibility, past coaching experience, potential to successfully coach high performance athletes and their commitment to the sport of tennis. If no suitable scholarship applications are received during the application period, Tennis Australia reserves the right not to offer one or both of the scholarships. Tennis Australia's decision regarding the award of the scholarships will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Selection panel

The Tennis Australia High Performance coaching course scholarship selection panel will consist of Belinda Colaneri (High Performance Coaching Course Coordinator), Kim Kachel (Project Talent Leader) and Scott Draper (Developmental Tennis Manager).

Tennis Australia will notify the successful applicants in writing.
