Recognition of Current Competence (RCC) Application Form
Tennis Australia Club Professional coaching course

What is RCC?

At Tennis Australia, we understand that tennis coaches gain skills and knowledge through a range of work, study, life and other experiences. Prior learning has the capacity to significantly contribute towards an individual’s current level of competence. In consideration of this, Tennis Australia offers the possibility for suitable candidates to provide evidence of current competence and prior learning. This process may also be referred to as Recognition of Prior Learning or RPL. Recognition of Current Competence (RCC) emphasises the need for the individual to be currently competent in the skills and knowledge gained through prior learning.

RCC is an assessment process that measures and evaluates an individual’s formal and informal learning experiences to determine the extent to which that individual has achieved the required learning and competency outcomes or standards for entry to, and/or partial or total completion of a coaching course.

If you have extensive coaching experience with beginner and intermediate players, you may be a suitable candidate to achieve the Tennis Australia Club Professional coaching qualification via the RCC process. During this process, the coach’s current knowledge and skills are assessed against a set of core competencies required by a Club Professional coach. Coaches undertaking the course in the face-to-face mode are required to successfully complete a series of assessment tasks which allow the coach to provide evidence of their competence in these core areas. The competence of RCC candidates will also be assessed in the same way. Additional evidence may also be required in support of the candidate’s RCC application.

The Coach Development Coordinator (CDC) or Coach Development Manager (CDM) in your state or territory will review the RCC application to identify whether the candidate is suitable for the RCC process.

Based on this assessment a recommendation will be communicated to the RCC candidate to either:

1. Continue on the RCC path to achieve the Club Professional coaching course qualification; or,
2. Enrol in the next Tennis Australia Club Professional coaching course to complete the qualification.
Characteristics of a Club Professional coach

A Club Professional coach must be able to:

- Create and maintain a positive environment for players
- Conduct well planned coaching sessions which cater for the developmental readiness of players, are meaningful to tennis and provide maximum participation and practice opportunities
- Plan for the continual development of players
- Implement various coaching programs for players at all levels (i.e., beginner to advanced)
- Effectively communicate to players, parents and other key stakeholders
- Provide leadership both on- and off-court
- Run a small tennis coaching business

Overview of the Club Professional coaching course

The Club Professional coaching course prepares coaches to become head coaching professionals at tennis clubs and centres. The course focuses on coaching tennis and growing a small business. Participants will further develop their ability to plan and deliver coaching sessions with a particular emphasis on developing tactical skills and analysing and correcting technical skills of intermediate players. Applying sport sciences, such as sport psychology, nutrition, strength and conditioning, using technology to analyse performance and planning programs for players of all ages are also covered. The course will provide coaches with the basic tools to grow a small business. Coaches completing this course are recognised as Tennis Australia qualified coaches*.

*Through our collaboration with the Registered Training Organisation (RTO), coaches undertaking the course in the face-to-face mode are able to enrol with RTO to undertake the course as a nationally recognised SIS40512 Certificate IV in Sport Coaching qualification.

If you would like more information about the possibility of applying for a Statement of Attainment from SCT for the SIS40512 Certificate IV in Sport Coaching IN ADDITION to the Tennis Australia Club Professional coaching course certificate as part of your Recognition of Current Competency (RCC) application, please contact the relevant Coach Development Coordinator or Coach Development Manager in your state.

Additional fees and assessment requirements apply.

Elements and performance criteria

Each unit of competency is made up of a series of elements. These elements of competency are the building blocks of the unit.

Performance criteria are statements that specify what is to be assessed and the required level of performance for each element of competency. Coaches will be required to provide evidence of competent performance in each criterion. A range of assessment tasks will be used to assess these performance criteria. Several performance criteria may be assessed during one task (e.g., during an on-court coaching session). Tasks may be written, oral or practical and will assess the coach’s knowledge, skills and understanding.

Providing evidence

RCC candidates are required to provide evidence of their competency for each element of competency and corresponding performance criteria.

The rules of evidence gathering are:

- The evidence you provide must be valid. It must relate to the specific competency unit that has been identified
- The evidence must be authentic. It must be something you have produced or has been written about you
- Evidence must be sufficient and demonstrate complete competency against the information that underpins a competency statement
- The evidence must be reliable. It must show you can consistently perform a given competency to the required standard
- Evidence must be current. This is a particularly important aspect as you must be able to demonstrate your evidence is still relevant to the skills and knowledge you have

Prior learning can include skills and knowledge gained through:

- Paid work experience - full-time, part-time or casual in Australia or overseas
- Voluntary work
- Unpaid work that you do for yourself or your family such as managing events
- Being coached or mentored (or coaching and mentoring others)
- Attending and participating in seminars, conferences and workshops
- Short courses that are not TAFE accredited
- Private study and research
- Additional life experiences that have given you competencies that match those in the relevant courses
Types of evidence

There are three types of evidence: direct, indirect and historical. The following table is a guide and you may be able to think of other types of evidence to demonstrate your skills and knowledge.

1. I am bound by all relevant Tennis Australia Limited (TA) policies (as developed or amended by TA from time to time) and made available to me at http://www.tennis.com.au/coaches/membership/policies including, but not limited to, the Member Protection Policy, the Anti-Doping Policy, Disciplinary Policy, Coaches Code of Conduct, Uniform Tennis Anti-Corruption Program and Social Media Policy, as well as, where applicable, any Cardio Tennis, Hot Shots and/or Tennis for Schools program terms and conditions.

2. I acknowledge that in order to protect the integrity and safety of the sport of tennis I must:

   b) complete the “Keeping the Tennis Community Safe” online learning modules, available via Bounce and any refresher courses as directed by TA from time to time.

3. I acknowledge that I must meet TA’s insurance eligibility requirements – which, among other things, require ‘Business Package’ or ‘Qualified’ Coach Members to maintain current first aid certification.

4. TA may reject my application for Coach Membership, accept my application but impose certain conditions, or suspend, or cancel, my Coach Membership during the membership term based on any of the following:
   a) my breach of these Conditions or any policy referred to in Condition 1 above;
   b) the results of TA’s screening processes, my failure to deliver screening documents, or TA otherwise becoming aware of other information about actual or alleged criminal activities;
   c) my failure to meet TA’s insurance eligibility requirements;
   d) my failure to maintain a valid Working with Children Check or National Police Check;
   e) any change to my Working with Children status; or
   f) having been found (by TA, any of its State-based Member Associations, or a relevant tribunal) to have committed an offence under any Policy referred to in Condition 1 (above) (in the case of renewal applications, this shall include any offences found to have been committed during the previous Coach Membership term).

6. As a Coach Member I may apply to TA via the relevant form on Bounce for a composite logo combining my own coaching logo and the TA Logo (TA Coach Composite Logo). If I am provided with a TA Coach Composite Logo, for the term of my 2019/20 TA Coach Membership TA grants to me a licence to reproduce that TA Coach Composite Logo for the purposes of publicising my Coach Membership with TA. This may include, for example, use on my website and/or marketing collateral. I acknowledge that the TA Coach Composite Logo must not be redrawn, reproporioned, recoloured or otherwise modified in any way, and parts or elements of the TA Coach Composite Logo must not be used to create other logos. I understand that I may notify TA at any time that I no longer wish to appear on TA’s Coach Member listing by emailing play@tennis.com.au.

15. I consent to TA, its State-based Member Associations and government and commercial partners taking, retaining and reproducing my image and likeness in any way pertaining to my membership or involvement in tennis.
