NEXT GENERATION PERFORMANCE COACH PROGRAM

The Tennis Australia Next Generation Performance coach program is designed to support the on-going success of Australian tennis at the professional level, through the development of identified coaches. On completion of this program, appropriate coaches will be encouraged to apply for the Performance – Level 3 Coaching course to continue your coaching journey.

Program details

The Next Generation Performance Coach program is conducted by Tennis Australia's Performance team. They prepare coaches to work in Performance coaching, while developing the skills to work with high performing players of all ages to reach Top 100 WTA/ATP. There are no formal assessments; rather robust self-discovery and learning activities.

The program is conducted as 2 x three-day face to face workshops conducted in Brisbane or Melbourne.

Program modules:

- Coach as Leader, Coach as Performer, Coach as Learner
- Create a high performing daily training environment
- Plan for long term player development
- Reflect on coaching practice
- Plan for lifelong learning

Face-to-Face Program dates:

Workshop 1: Monday 13 May – Wednesday 15 May 2024

Workshop 2: Date to be confirmed.

Program applicants will be accepted to participate in this program based on their application and ability to meet the course entry criteria. All applicants will be notified on acceptance by Monday, 29 April 2024.

The process for selection is as follows:

- Program applicants to complete the application form
- The submission of a professionally completed 5-minute video highlighting your coaching philosophy and why this program will benefit your coaching &/or coaching program.
- The submission of you coaching a private session with your selected player
- Applications must be received by Belinda Colaneri by Sunday 21 April 2024.

Number of course participants

The maximum number of candidate's is 20. This ensures quality in delivery and learning experiences.

Women's scholarships

Tennis Australia is committed to increasing the number and quality of female tennis coaches in Australia. To achieve this aim, Tennis Australia is providing an opportunity for female coaches to access funding to support their completion of a Tennis Australia qualification or program. There are scholarships available to female coaches to complete this program. Please go to tennis.com.au/coaches/womens-coaching-scholarship-application-forms for more information.

Procedure for appeals and complaints

Tennis Australia actively encourages feedback and dialogue with our course participants, workplaces and trainers as part of our continuous improvement philosophy. We established an equitable and transparent process for encouraging and dealing with feedback, complaints, grievances and appeals.

Our policy is governed by the following values and principles:

- All program participants shall have a clear opportunity to express their view on their learning experience, whether positive or negative.
- The process shall be transparent, and no program participant shall perceive any disadvantage by expressing his or her views.
- The complaint shall be dealt with at the level of occurrence with opportunity for escalation to hasten resolve.
- Student feedback shall be dealt with in a timely, confidential, and open manner and the student shall be kept informed of progress.
- Program participant feedback will be analysed, and trends built into the company's continuous improvement process, so all program participants benefit from the learning of the feedback.

Program costs

Successful applicants will be required to pay a fee of $1,210 including GST and the costs necessary to attend each face to face workshop. A travel grant will be available to those who meet the criteria.
