Compulsory attendance

If accepted into the course, you must agree to attend all the sessions. In the event of non-attendance, you will be required to attend contact days at a future course to make up the sessions missed. If you are unable to attend due to illness, a medical certificate is required.

Coaching practice – supervising coach

Coaching practice is incorporated into “Module 1 – Coaching Tennis” of the Tennis Australia Development Coaching Course (Level 1) (incorporating SIS30521 Certificate III in Sport Coaching). During the course, candidates must complete 40 hours of practical coaching with junior players (Red, Orange & Green stage players). Confirmation of these hours is required through the completion of a coaching log sheet provided during the course. These hours must be completed under the guidance of a supervising coach at least Club Professional (Level 2) qualified.

Number of course participants

The maximum number of candidates is 24. This ensures quality in delivery and learning experiences. The maximum Tennis Australia Coach Developer to participant ratio is 1:8 for on-court practical sessions.

Assessment

All modules in this coaching course involve assessment. Opportunities to demonstrate competence are many and varied and include observation and demonstration of coaching session, written and oral questioning, peer assessment, roles players and projects.

The Tennis Australia Coach Developers will implement flexible assessment methods to allow those with special needs to undertake an alternative form of assessment. Should you have any special needs it is highly recommended you bring these to the attention of the Course Coordinator before the start of the course.

Course completion

Course participants will have 12 months from the course start date to complete all units to a competent standard. If this is not achieved, an administration fee of $350.00 (Inc. GST) will be incurred by the course participant and a course extension form issued. Following receipt of this payment and return of the extension form, the course deadline will be extended, but not exceed 24 months from the course start date.

Course cost

The course fee includes the cost of the Tennis Australia Development Coaching Course (Level 1) (incorporating SIS30521 Certificate III in Sport Coaching) $1,541.00 (Inc. GST), plus Tennis Australia Coach Membership $319.00 (Inc. GST) for a total cost of $1,860.00 (Inc. GST).

Recognition of Current Competence (RCC), Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Credit Transfer (CT)

Applicants are expected to attend all units. Applicants who believe they have current competence, credit transfers or recognition of prior learning in any unit of competency may apply for their Course Coordinator.

This process should be completed prior to beginning the Tennis Australia Development Coaching Course (Level 1) (incorporating SIS30521 Certificate III in Sport Coaching). No units will be waived or excluded in any other way. For more information about the process, please contact your Course Coordinator.

Procedure for appeals and complaints

Tennis Australia actively encourages feedback and dialogue with our course participants as part of our continuous improvement philosophy. We established an equitable and transparent process for encouraging and dealing with feedback, complaints, grievances and appeals.

Our policy is governed by the following values and principles:

- All course participants shall have a clear opportunity to express their view on their learning experience, whether positive or negative.
- The process shall be transparent and no course participant shall perceive any disadvantage by expressing their views
- The complaint shall be dealt with at the level of occurrence with opportunity for escalation to hasten resolve
- Complaints that involve a breach of Tennis Australia national policies (e.g. Member Protection policy) shall be directed to the Tennis Australia Integrity team.
- Course participant feedback shall be dealt with in a timely, confidential manner and the participant shall be kept informed of progress.
- Course participant feedback will be analysed and trends built into the company's continuous improvement process so all course participants benefit from the learning of the feedback.

Tennis Australia refund policy

Upon acceptance into the Tennis Australia Development Coaching Course (Level 1) (incorporating SIS30521 Certificate III in Sport Coaching), candidates are required to pay the full course fees prior to the first day of the course. If you would like to discuss payment via instalments, please contact your Course Coordinator.

Fees paid by candidates may be refunded in the following circumstances and time frames:

- For withdrawals received in writing, after accepting a place in the course but before the first day of the course, fees will be refunded less a $150.00 (Inc. GST) administrative fee.
- For withdrawals received after the course start date, no payments will be refunded.

Supervising coach commitment

By completing and signing this application form, I fully understand my role and commitment to _____ as their supervising coach. (insert course participant's name)

I agree to make all reasonable efforts to provide support and offer experiences to progress the course participant's coaching skills.

I agree to act professionally, ethically and to abide by Tennis Australia's National Policies, including the Member Protection Policy and the Coaches' Code of Conduct at all times.

The supervising coach is expected to assist the course participant in the following areas:

- session planning
- group and time management and communication
- session delivery and catering for the needs of individual players in each group.
- assistance with analysis and improvement of technical and tactical skills of junior players
- assist in sourcing four players for each of the following on-court assessments — red stage (beginner players aged 6–8 years), orange stage (players aged 8–10 years) and green stage (players aged 10–12 years). These players should be able to maintain a basic rally appropriate to their age and stage.
- submit a third party report which will provide additional evidence of the course participant's competency in a range of areas as demonstrated in their workplace (e.g., maintaining equipment). A template for this report will be provided.

Should I have any questions and queries I will direct them to the Course Coordinator and work with them in making the coaching course experience as fulfilling as possible for the course participant.
